1. District Line to FULHAM BROADWAY

The regular exit of Fulham Broadway station through the shopping mall is closed on matchdays. Fans will be guided through another exit instead, which also leads directly onto Fulham Broadway.

2. Keep left on Fulham Broadway

After leaving the station, turn left. After a few meters, you can already see the entrance to the stadium.

3. Enter the stadium premises at Britannia Gate

After a minute walk, Britannia Gate will appear on your lefthand side, you can't miss it.

General Information

Line: District Line to Fulham Broadway (direction Wimbledon!)

Travel time from Embankment: 20 minutes

Walking time from station to the ground: 3 minutes

Alternatives: The tube station Earl's Court is a 15 minute walk from the ground. Additionally busses are calling right in front of the stadium.

After the final whistle: Queues at the tube station are massive after the match. But it looks worse than it is, you will get into a train surprisingly fast. Just keep in mind to keep right when you leave the ground premises at Britannia Gate. It's less crowded on the left side, but you won't be able to get into the tube station because of a fence. If queueing isn't exactly your thing, take the 15 minute walk to Earl's Court.
